Dying to Be Widow

Risk and the Killers – Book Two

Before Risk and the Kildare Killers used a wild sex and death escapade to flee the raging flames beneath Dayzee Dazzle's mansion in Beverly Hills, bringing them to a dark, burning, nightmare world . . . Widow was already there

The shy, prudish woman had earned her passage to Below the Bay like all the rest: she died at a peak moment of ecstasy. In that hellish landscape below the San Francisco Bay, in shock and losing her mind, she started mutating from a blast of nasty radiation, got violently and cruelly raped, then got cast out into the savage city, still gagged and bound.

Was it her fate to perish at the claws and fangs of whichever beast found her first? Not a chance. She learned to embrace that world, celebrate the gorgeous but monstrous thing she'd become, and reject any boundaries between sex and death and love and consumption.
